

RMEIM STUDENT PRIZE 2022

The Mediterranean Network of Engineering and Management Schools (RMEIM) and its partners are delighted to announce the RMEIM 2022 Student Prize.

The aim of this Prize is to reward a young graduate student from the RMEIM network, who has pursued a program in Engineering or Management, and did his/her Master thesis / Final project in the Sustainable Development field.

RMEIM STUDENT PRIZE 2022

1 000€+ all-inclusive trip in Tunisia to attend the

RMEIM General Assembly 2022

17th - 19th March (Sousse + Monastir)

Candidates requirements

- The students have obtained their diploma (Engineer, Master Degree or MBA) from a RMEIM member institutions during the Academic year 2020/2021.
- The Students' work should be in line with one of the UNESCO Sustainable Development Goals.

How to apply

Candidates must submit a file on <https://www.rmei.info/index.php/en/rmeim-prize>

- Application deadline: 15th February, 2022
- Uploaded Europass CV (in English)
- An abstract of the final year Project / Master Thesis. English language is mandatory, with a maximum of 3000 characters (spaces not included). The abstract must include: title, affiliation, bibliography and one figure max (if needed). PDF format is required.
- Master Thesis or Final Report. PDF format is required.

Applicants will receive an acknowledgment of receipt. Incomplete applications will not be processed for evaluation.

Applications will be evaluated by experts appointed by Prof Abdelmajid JEMNI from Monastir University (TN), President of the RMEI-M Prize Committee. The winner will be invited to present his/her Master Thesis or Final Project during a special dedicated session during the RMEIM General Assembly 2022, at Sousse-Monastir, TUNISIA: 17-19 March, 2022.